COMMUNITY ARTS

FROM THE DIRECTOR

2020 was a year of the unexpected. SAGE Community Arts faced great challenges while at the same time hitting new records and meeting those challenges head on. Through the strength of the Artist Members, volunteers, the Board of Directors, and leadership, SAGE Community Arts emerged strong and vibrant from the pandemic year.

The first three years that SAGE resided in the new downtown location saw year over year growth. The pandemic proved challenging for upward movement in our fourth year. However, the Member Gallery at SAGE experienced a fourth year in a row of continued prosperity, hitting a record sales month in September 2020. It is truly humbling to see the talent that is displayed in the Member Gallery and the art appreciation that the Sheridan community has for the artists of SAGE Community Arts.

We also saw a turnover in leadership this last year. Former Executive Director, Kendra Heim buck saw SAGE Community Arts through the crucial first months of the pandemic and then stepped down to take on new challenges. The Board of Directors and staff saw SAGE through the remainder of the year and through the search for the new Director. It was with great honor that I accepted the position and am very excited to support SAGE as the organization continues to flourish.

Please join me in celebrating the achievements SAGE Community Arts was able to accomplish despite the pandemic year of 2020. These accomplishments show the strength of the community support from all our artists, volunteers, members, and leadership, and continue to set SAGE on a path of great success.

Sincerely,

OUR MISSION

TO INSPIRE AND BUILD COMMUNITY THROUGH THE VISUAL ARTS

Our mission is fulfilled by focusing on three key pillars: see art, create art, promote art.

SEE ART

SAGE provides the Sheridan community opportunities to see and experience a wide variety of art in our Members Gallery and Exhibition Gallery. Both galleries are open Tuesday through Saturday and for additional hours during receptions and educational events held at the art center.

Our Community Arts Education Program provides ongoing creative opportunities for all ages from beginners to professional artists. All classes offered by SAGE are held in a supportive environment and taught by both visiting artists and local professional artists dedicated to SAGE.

CREATE ART

PROMOTE ART

SAGE creates a platform to support the visual arts and local artists through our galleries, events, and marketing reach. SAGE is committed to strengthening the Sheridan community by promoting Sheridan County as an art destination for tourism to enhance the creative economy.

The "Fuming: Soda Fired Ceramics" reception was instead a Livestream event featuring interviews with the artists Rod Dugal, Elain Olafson Henry, and Stephen Mullins on our Facebook page.

The 10th Annual National Juried Show had a hybrid Awards Reception featuring an opening announcement video with interviews from Juror John Taft and presenting sponsor First Federal Bank & Trust, followed by recorded audio of artists' statements and details of the artwork.

For "Two Berrys", we had a Livestream interview broadcast on Facebook with Carol Berry and Barbara Berry for their mother/daughter exhibition.

VIRTUAL LEARNING

During the COVID-19 pandemic, SAGE explored new ways to offer community arts education. While the galleries were closed, we turned to Facebook Livestreams and YouTube. We also started a Virtual Art Show & Tell group that meets every Friday via Zoom. Jenny Wuerker created an original instructional YouTube video for SAGE for people to paint along, and Ivy Harbour Case lead several "Yoga in the Gallery" Livestreams and "Kids Create" Livestream videos after school. We also partnered with Downtown Sheridan Association for 3rd Thursday Quickdraw Livestreams.
